

Guided walks with Cotswold Wardens near Stroud, October & November, 2025

There are a number of warden-led walks coming up within easy reach of Stroud. There is no need to book and there is no charge for joining the walks. However, there is a box for a voluntary contribution towards materials for our work on footpath maintenance. Walks start usually at 10.00 am. & will return to the starting point. A packed lunch is advisable. Sadly, no dogs allowed, but dog walkers could find attractive self-guided walks on the website. Additional details are on the Cotswold National Landscape (formerly AONB) website.

Guided walks for November

Wednesday 5th November, starting at 10:30 "Charles II Was Here", Leighterton

Start from the Royal Oak pub in Leighterton. From the attractive village of Leighterton we head towards Boxwell, passing historic Boxwell Court. We continue on the Monarch's Way to the hilltop village of Tresham, returning across field tracks to our start point.

Distance 5.5 miles / 8.85 km Duration 3.5 hours Difficulty Moderate fitness, may be steep slopes.

Boxwell Court is a fine mansion built on the site of an ancient monastery. The monastery was destroyed by Henry VIII who ceded the land to the Huntley family who were tenants of the monastery and assisted Henry's enforcer to close it down - they have lived there ever since. The main source of income was boxwood used in tool making. Charles II was reputed to have stayed there, and left a gold ring in appreciation. He was on his long trip from Worcester to the Dorset coast - good of him to follow the Monarch's way.

Start Leighterton lies to the east of the A46 mid-way between the Dunkirk cross-roads and the Dursley-Tetbury Rd. Do not park in the pub car-park, but courteously in the village nearby.
